

CALL FOR PARTICIPATION

NEXT GENERATION WORKSHOP ON NON-PROLIFERATION AND DISARMAMENT

The Istituto Affari Internazionali (IAI) is pleased to announce a call for participation in a “Next Generation Workshop” to discuss non-proliferation and disarmament challenges.

The workshop, organized by IAI on behalf of the EU Non-Proliferation and Disarmament Consortium, will be held in Brussels on 12 November 2024, from 8:45 am to 12:45 pm Central European Time (CET).

The call is open to:

- Junior diplomats, M.A and PhD students, researchers and professionals with proven experience in Arms Control, Non-Proliferation and Disarmament issues who would like to make a presentation at the Workshop on one of the following areas/topics:
- Regional WMD Proliferation Threats
- Nuclear Proliferation Challenges and the Future of the NPT Regime
- New and Emerging Technologies and Arms Control

Presentations should offer the speakers’ view on the topic under discussion and will be followed by comments from other participants. Each session will be chaired by members of the EUNPD Consortium and Network.

Selected speakers will also be invited to participate in the 2024 EU Non-Proliferation and Disarmament (EUNPD) Conference, which will take place in Brussels from 3:00 pm on 12 November to 6:00 pm on 13 November.

Candidates can be from both the EU and non-EU countries.

Travel in economy class and accommodation costs for both events will be covered, while airport and local transfers, VISA and travel insurance costs will not be borne by the conference organizers.

Age limit: 36 years old by the end of 2024.

Application material:

- Résumé or CV (max 2 pages)
- Cover letter detailing the applicant’s motivations for taking part in the workshop
- 500-word abstract explaining the topic that the applicant wants to present at the workshop
- One letter of reference

Please note that incomplete applications will not be considered.

Application process:

Applicants must submit their candidacy by 31 May 2024 to eunpdc@iai.it
Only selected candidates will be contacted by 28 June 2024.
