

Roundtable

THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE SOUTHERN CORRIDOR AND THE ITALIAN ENERGY INTERESTS

Event organized by the Istituto Affari Internazionali, and funded by the Trans-Adriatic Pipeline Consortium

24 June 2011

HOTEL PONTE SISTO – VIA DEI PETTINARI, 64
ROME

Agenda

- 10.00 am Welcome Coffee
Moderator: Alessandra Migliaccio, Energy Reporter, Bloomberg
- 10.30 am OPENING REMARKS
Ettore Greco, Director, Istituto Affari Internazionali
- 10.35 am THE SOUTHERN CORRIDOR: NEEDS, OPPORTUNITIES AND CONSTRAINTS
Nicolò Sartori, Researcher, Istituto Affari Internazionali
Background paper on “The Southern Gas Corridor: Needs, Opportunities and Constraints”
- 10.50 am THE ITALIAN POSITION TOWARDS THE CORRIDOR
Gilberto Dialuce, Director-General for Security of Supply and Energy Infrastructure, Department of Energy, Italian Ministry of Economic Development
- 11.05 am THE SOUTH STREAM PROJECT
Federico Riggio, Head of International Affairs, ENI
- 11.20 am THE TRANS-ADRIATIC PIPELINE
Kjetil Tunglund, Managing Director, TAP
- 11.35 am THE INTERCONNECTOR TURKEY-GREECE-ITALY
Elio Ruggeri, Project Director, ITGI
- 11.50 am PERSPECTIVES FROM THE SUPPLY SIDE
Steve Garlick, Origination Manager, Southern Europe, BP Gas
- 12:05 am COMMENTS by Giacomo Luciani, Scientific Director, Master in International Energy, Paris School of International Affairs at Sciences-Po; Princeton University Global Scholar
- 12.20 am OPEN DEBATE with the introduction of Fabio Tambone, Head of International Affairs, Autorità per l'energia elettrica e il gas (AEEG)
- 1.00 pm CONCLUSIONS
Stefano Silvestri, President, Istituto Affari Internazionali