IRAQ: PAVING WAYS TOWARDS RECONCILIATION AND INTER-REGIONAL DIALOGUE

THURSDAY, 10 NOVEMBER 2022
15:00 – 17:00

Working language: English (no translation)

As tensions are rising once more in Iraq, this webinar sheds light onto practices in Iraq and its neighboring region which are working towards a direction of reconciliation and inter-regional dialogue.

In particular, we will discuss first steps towards transitional justice and cultural heritage protection within Iraq, as well as the potential for cooperation in the region in policy fields which are of key importance for its future, that is infrastructure connectivity, pipeline diplomacy, and transboundary water resources.

The webinar features a conversation of Iraqi and European experts in these fields with scholars and students of the University of Turin.
