

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON COERCIVE DIPLOMACY, SANCTIONS AND INTERNATIONAL LAW

ROME, 13 FEBRUARY 2015

Palazzo Rondinini
Via del Corso, 518

Working language: English / Business attire required

With the support of

DRAFT PROGRAMME

as of 6 February '15

A special thanks to Banca Monte dei Paschi di Siena for kindly providing the conference room

9.30-11.00

SESSION I: SANCTIONS AS INSTRUMENTS OF COERCIVE DIPLOMACY

Chair:

Ettore Greco, Istituto Affari Internazionali (IAI), Rome

Paper givers:

Natalino Ronzitti, LUISS University and Istituto Affari Internazionali (IAI), Rome

- Sanctions as instruments of coercive diplomacy: an international law perspective

Michael Bothe, University of Frankfurt

- Compatibility and legitimacy of sanctions regimes

Eric Lorber, Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP, Washington DC (tbc)

- Enforcement measures and the practice of circumventing sanctions

Discussants:

Marco Roscini, University of Westminster

Marina Mancini, LUISS University, Rome, and Mediterranean University of Reggio Calabria

11.00-11.30

Coffee break

11.30-13.00

SESSION II: THE ACTORS OF INTERNATIONAL SANCTIONS REGIMES

Chair:

Nicoletta Pirozzi, Istituto Affari Internazionali (IAI), Rome

Paper givers:

Marco Gestri, University of Modena and Reggio Emilia and Johns Hopkins University (SAIS Europe)

- Sanctions imposed by the European Union: legal and institutional aspects

Charlotte Beaucillon, Université Paris I

- Individual States, sanctions and the extraterritorial effects of national legislation

Nigel White, University of Nottingham

- Sanctions against non-State actors

Discussants:

Eric Myjer, Utrecht University

Giuseppe Maresca, Italian Ministry of Economy, Rome

13.00-14.00

Buffet lunch

14.00-15.30

SESSION III: SANCTIONS AND THE PROTECTION OF HUMAN RIGHTS

Chair:

Marco Gestri, University of Modena and Reggio Emilia and Johns Hopkins University (SAIS Europe)

Paper givers:	Kyoji Kawasaki, Hitotsubashi University, Tokyo <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Sanctions and erga omnes obligations Thilo Marauhn/Ignaz Stegmiller, Justus-Liebig-Universität Giessen <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ The role of sanctions committees Monica Lugato, LUMSA University, Rome <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Sanctions and individual rights
Discussants:	Marco Roscini, University of Westminster Michael Bothe, University of Frankfurt
15.30-16.00	Coffee break
16.00-18.00	SESSION IV: THE IMPLEMENTATION OF SANCTIONS
Chair:	Stefano Silvestri , Istituto Affari Internazionali (IAI), Rome
Paper givers:	Daniel H. Joyner, University of Alabama School of Law, Tuscaloosa <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Sanctions and the principle of proportionality Andrea Atteritano, LUISS University, and Hogan Lovells International Law Firm, Rome / Maria Beatrice Deli, LUISS University, and International Chamber of Commerce, Rome <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Impact of sanctions on treaties of commerce and contracts Francesco Giumelli, University of Groningen <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ The effectiveness of sanctions: the case of the European Union Joachim Krause, University of Kiel <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Western Economic and Political Sanctions as instruments of strategic competition with Russia – opportunities and risks
Discussants:	Mojtaba Kazazi, International law practitioner; Former Executive Head, United Nations Compensation Commission, Geneva. Mark Entin, Russian Association of International Law, Moscow Nicoletta Pirozzi, Istituto Affari Internazionali (IAI), and “Roma Tre” University
18.00-18.15	CONCLUSIONS AND FOLLOW-UP Natalino Ronzitti, LUISS University and Istituto Affari Internazionali (IAI), Rome