

Hybrid training course
CAREERS IN THE EUROPEAN UNION
From 16 to 18 may 2023

Working within the institutions and agencies of the European Union means coming into close contact with a multinational and multilingual work environment. It also means being able to deal with issues that are important to citizens and to EU relations with third countries.

The specialization course in "Careers in the European Union" of the Istituto Affari Internazionali, conceived with the active learning methodology, aims to provide the necessary tools: to understand and explain the functioning of the institutions and agencies of the Union European; to orient yourself within the recruiting and job placement platforms and embark on a career in the EU, according to the professional profiles required; to prepare for successful tests and interviews; to sharpen your soft skills.

Educational programme

The specialization course will take place in the afternoons from 16 to 18 May 2023 and will be held in Italian, with the possibility of some lessons in English.

The program is structured according to a hybrid teaching approach, which alternates seminar moments with exercises aimed at giving participants the opportunity to apply what they learned during the frontal lessons and to put the teachings into practice.

The teaching staff is made up of experts, researchers from the Istituto Affari Internazionali competent for the subject, and representatives of public and private institutions.

The course includes the following teaching modules:

- career guidance in the EU world;
- structure and functioning of EU institutions and agencies;
- transversal skills for preparing for tests and interviews;
- analysis and knowledge of the "competency framework".

The following laboratory activities are planned:

- Practice for drafting and improving your curriculum;
- exercises to improve one's own soft skills useful for candidacy.

For whom is this course intended?

The "Careers in the European Union" course is designed to offer in-depth study to those with a background in social sciences (political science, economics, law) who want to prepare themselves to sit the selection tests to work within the European institutions.
