THE CHIP WAR AND TAIWAN

ROME, 10 DECEMBER 2024

11:30-13:00 CET

ISTITUTO AFFARI INTERNAZIONALI (IAI)

VIA DEI MONTECATINI, 17

Working language: English

The seminar will bring together experts from think tanks and academia working on Taiwan and semiconductors. The discussion will aim at assessing the island's geopolitical role and its economic relevance, focusing on some of the most significant issues of the current international scenario. In particular, the panelists will examine the future perspectives of the value chains of semiconductors and the existing link between Taiwanese and European economies. The event is organized in the framework of IAI's strategic partnership with Intesa Sanpaolo.
