

Roundtables

THE REFORM OF THE WORLD TRADE ORGANIZATION

KEY PRIORITIES FOR THE G20

8 SEPTEMBER 2021, 15:00-16:30 CEST

WELCOME ADDRESS

Pier Carlo Padoan, Vice President, IAI and T20 Lead Co-Chair TF3 “Trade, Investment and Growth”

Sait Akman, Director for G20 Studies Center, The Economic Policy Research Foundation of Turkey (TEPAV), Steering Committee member of TIRN (Trade and Investment Research Network)

KEY RECOMMENDATIONS FOR THE G20

Claudia Schmucker, Head, Geo-Economics Program, German Council on Foreign Relations, DGAP:

Boosting G20 cooperation for WTO reform: Leveraging the full potential of plurilateral initiatives

Carlos Primo Braga, Adjunct Professor, Fundação Dom Cabral:

Confronting “Deglobalization” in the Multilateral Trading System

Xinquan Tu, Executive Dean and Professor, China Institute for WTO Studies, University of International Business & Economics, UIBE:

Trade and development in the WTO: Toward a constructive approach to the issue of development status and special & differential treatment

Co-promoted by:

Roundtables

REFLECTIONS FROM G20 POLICY MAKERS

Nicola Faganello, Deputy Director General for the European Union and Director for International Trade Policy, Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation; Chair G20 Trade and Investment Working Group

Anabel González, Deputy-Director General, World Trade Organization (WTO)

MODERATOR

Axel Berger, Senior Researcher and Head of G20 Policy Research Group, German Development Institute, Steering Committee member of TIRN (Trade and Investment Research Network)